Greetings!

The first half of 2009 has been an exciting time for Total Productivity Track, as we continue to expand into ALL ancillary departments. (We're not just for therapy anymore!)

As always, please do not hesitate to give us a call if you'd like to take all the great reports and tracking available with us into additional departments in your facility.

Changes are Coming... Can Positive Productivity Save Health Care?

In a new article by Therapy Track CEO Richard Tinsley, we take a look at how savvy administrators are getting strategically prepared to absorb imminent changes on the health care horizon -- including focusing on taking ancillary services to the highest quality with the lowest cost.

New Advisory Board Member: Rick Richards

Therapy Track, LLC is please to announce the addition of Rick Richards to its advisory board.

Rick Richards is an entrepreneur with over 25 years experience in the healthcare industry. He most recently served as CEO of Integra Hospital Management, a start-up company operating rehabilitation hospitals, based in Plano Texas. Prior to that, he served as President/CEO of Richards Healthcare, Inc., one of the nation's premiere rehabilitation service providers, which he founded and managed from 1991 to 2006. Richards Healthcare Inc. was ultimately sold to publically traded HCR ManorCare, based in Toledo, Ohio. During his tenure with Richards Healthcare, Mr. Richards was honored as a finalist for Houston's Entrepreneur of the Year in 1995 and his company was recognized as one of Houston's Top 100 Companies. Prior to 1991, Mr. Richards served in a number of middle and senior management positions, eventually becoming President/CEO of Tinsley Physical Therapy, a private Houston company, during the late 1980s. Mr. Richards has served on numerous community based boards, including The John Cooper School, First Baptist Church, and The Club at Carlton Woods. He currently serves on the Executive Board for The Cox School of Business (Southern Methodist University), the Advisory Board for
